Petey: Go Green!

Audience: Go White!

Liz: ...and I still have no clue what Harbor Days is even about.

Cherry: It's about the parade, sweetheart.

Perry: Nah, it's about the carnival, yo!

Shelby: Actually, it's about the fireworks, deary!

Willy-Milly: It's about the Lake House.

Willy: My genius, Milly. She invented the auto-toilet then flushed her money to buy this Lake House.

Milly: That ain't how you use the expression, sweetie. Well, my creative Willy tends to our garden.

Willy: Did you put a turtle in the koi pond? That turtle ate all of our koi fish!

Cherry: It's my son, Jacob. Little teenage rascal...

Liz: She's Petey's oldest sister, Cherry Van Otterloo Jacobowitz. Her family's in Kalamazoo. She's a costume designer and her hubby played hockey with the Grand Rapids Griffins.

Cherry: The only pucks I give is winning the Most Creative Award at the annual Grande Parade.

The musical score for "The Sound of Silence" is presented for a six-piece ensemble. The score is written in G major (one sharp) and 4/4 time. The instruments are arranged vertically: Harmonica, Drum Set, Guitar, Bass, Violin, and Cello. The Harmonica part features a melodic line with eighth and sixteenth notes. The Drum Set part provides a steady rhythm with a snare drum and cymbal. The Guitar part includes chords and a melodic line. The Bass part provides a low-frequency accompaniment. The Violin and Cello parts provide a harmonic accompaniment.
