SYNOPSIS

Set during a family reunion in Elk Rapids, this coming-of-age musical follows Lulu and Petoskey - a Dearborn city girl and Yooper farm boy – as they stop a data center from taking over their grandparents' lake house and save the entire city. Our rock star Lulu dreams of having a spiritual connection to the land and her rocks like Petoskey has. Meanwhile, our grieving Petoskey hopes to get to know his late father and help his mother heal through water. Petoskey, the state stone and native fossil that reveals its true pattern when wet, serves as a metaphor for hidden grief and emotional depth. Lulu, “pearl” in Arabic, is a metaphor for those who try to break out of their shells.

Michigan is inspired by David Quang Pham's upbringing and the MacGregors who invite him to their Elk Rapids lake house on Harbor Days since being roommates with their family member Lukas Jacob in 2014. In 2026, after a series of suicides of his hometown and college friends in musical theatre, he began writing this musical as a love letter to his family and communities in our home Mitten.

WHY NOW?

Michigan champions human creativity, connections, and nature against the rise of harmful technologies, symbolized by the threat of a data center replacing a small-town family's lake house. By centering the narrative on the impacts of suicide and collective loss, the play addresses today's mental health crisis, offering ways to heal through open communication and community. And it uses science and folklore to bridge regional cultural divides, reminding audiences to protect both the natural environments and our shared heritages that keep us rooted.

Michigan is Oklahoma craziness meets Fun Home tenderness meets Bright Star folksiness.

THEMES

Collective Grief and Emotional Healing

The story explores the long-term impact of grief after Petey's suicide and Grandma Milly's death, demonstrating how silence fractures families while open communication fosters generational healing.

Community versus Technology

The central conflict pits a warm hand-made tradition against cold corporate greed, by keeping AI data centers from erasing local heritage, such as the family's lake house.

Geographic and Cultural Disconnection

The narrative highlights how families can become polarized by peninsulas, symbolized by the physical and emotional barrier of the Mackinac Bridge separating the Upper and Lower Peninsula identities. The story leans into subcultures, contrasting Yooper (Upper Peninsula) against suburban Dearborn/Lower Peninsula dynamics.

Belonging and Identity

Through Lulu's competitive drive to outshine her cousins, the musical examines the painful adolescent struggle to fit into a Midwest family dynamic and find one's own sense of worth.

Nature, Folklore, and Science Literacy

By embedding paleontology into the musical numbers, the narrative uses the natural history of the Petoskey stone fossil to teach environmental appreciation and show how memories attach themselves to physical landscapes.

Michigan

The Immigrant Experience

This manifests through multiple layers, such as Shelby marrying an Arab man, Jasper Tran's Vietnamese restaurant (Banh MiMichigan), and Jasper's realization that his refugee family stayed united across continents while local families are divided by peninsulas. It deals heavily with how different minority communities interact within the Midwest.

Economic Displacement and Xenophobia

The backstory reveals the harsh realities of blue-collar job loss during the 2008 recession, like David's family in the automotive industry. It directly addresses the displaced anger that can arise from automated or immigrant replacement (Petey being fired and replaced by a migrant worker), showing the tragic intersection of economic desperation, racial tension, and family fallout.

The Power of Hand-Made Artistry

The family's century-old Ford Model T, their decades of hand-made costumes, and the town's rally around them showcase art and weirdness as a form of liberation.

Healing through Artistry, Spirituality, or Technology

Amanda's brother Conor and Cherry and Perry and Shelby's brother/Liz's husband Petey commit suicide off Mackinac Bridge. Amanda and Liz never crossed the bridge for years. Amanda also has disdain for water, so she makes more data centers to drain them. Amanda processes grief by losing artistry through AI while Cherry becomes more artistic and less tech-savvy.

PLOT SUMMARY

Michigan is a folksy musical dramedy set at a family reunion where two rival cousins fight a data center to save their grandparents' lake house. The themes explore grief, cultural disconnection of the peninsulas, and what it means to be a Michigander.

Grampy Willy and Granny Milly live in Elk Rapids on the north tip of the Lower Peninsula. They have four adult children – Cherry, Perry, Shelby, and the only son Petey, and some grandchildren. Every August, their lake house lodges them for the annual Harbor Days. The Vandam family are known for their century-old Ford Model T, wearing themed costumes for the parade, and winning every Most Creative Award (“The Mitten Song”).

In 2008, Petey lives with his pregnant wife Lizzie in the Upper Peninsula. His childhood friend is Jasper Tran, who runs the Elk Rapids Vietnamese restaurant, BANH MICHIGAN. On a swim, he jokily promises to name their kid after the first rock he picks up, which turns out to be a heart-shaped Petoskey with an elk symbol (“Life is Complete”).

With the recession, their shipyard job fires and replaces Petey and Liz with migrants. He then hurts his little sister Shelby due to her Arab husband. In a storm, he drives off the Mackinac Bridge to save their house on his life insurance. A detective finds his Petoskey. Ever since, Liz refuses to cross bridges, missing all family gatherings (“Body of Water”).

For family reunions, the aunts take turns driving Petoskey to Elk Rapids then Milly drives him home. Jasper becomes his godfather. For every Mackinac Bridge crossing, he can hear his dad sing. And then there's his bright cousin from Dearborn, Lulu Abughosh. She always competes to find the rarest stones on their swims (“Yoopers and Trolls”).

In 2020, Milly passes away, cancelling the 2020 and 2021 family reunions. Soon, data center agent Amanda Wayland tricks a grieving Willy into signing away the deed to his house by using afterlife.ai to bring Milly and Petey back to life (“It Would Be a Shame”).

In 2022, to honor Milly, 13-year-old Petoskey's mom returns for the first time since '08. They drive the long way through Wisconsin. Jasper helps the kids set up camp. He takes their snacks as “dad tax.” The aunties take even more with “mom taxes” (“Dad Tax”).

Though the family gather by the bonfire, 13-year-old Lulu is in her tent finishing a song. She revisits a time when she ran away and was saved from a car accident by deer. She thinks everyone sees her as a loser. She'd do anything to win their hearts (“Dearborn”).

They realize Amanda tricked Willy into trading the Lake House for her AI that “brings loved ones back to life.” She tours the home and sees a photo of Petoskey's heirloom. She wants it more than anything. So, he promises to trade it for the deed (“AI Does the Work for Me”).

They need to find it in Pine River (“Wild Midwest”). He revisits a memory of Lulu losing the heirloom while canoeing in 2019, severing his dad's spiritual ties. So, he gathers everyone to find it. No one does (“Fish for Mom and Dad”).

Michigan

Later that night on a dune, Lulu witnesses a deer pass by their bonfire. Next day, while Perry teaches fossils to the kids ("Time Does Heal"), Lulu separates and discovers a deer dropping off the heirloom and other rare rocks on the shore ("Gichigamiin").

After successfully bulldozing Ypsilanti, Amanda revisits a time when she and her techy brother were artists until his suicide killed her creative spirit ("The Starving Artist").

For Harbor Days' parade, Broadway actor cousin Jacob Jacobowitz is the Grand Marshal. So, the theme is theatre. Petoskey dresses as Oklahoma's Jud Fry while Lulu plays Evan Hansen. Before marching, she shows her rare findings to the family. To spite Petoskey, she breaks his father's necklace, unaware it was their only chance to save the lake house from Amanda. The parade goes wrong as Petoskey beats up Lulu, disqualifying them for the first time ("Fraudway"). After his mom lectures him, he runs off ("Kick Rocks").

In the following act, Liz revisits a memory of Lulu and Petoskey at a talent show ("Hands Come in Handy"). Presently, she searches for him while Lulu tries to find him at Banh MI ("Petoskey"). Jasper shares his refugee family stayed united despite continents dividing them as well as a time when a Lebanese family bought out his family's failing restaurant but did not resort to blame as Petey had. The Vandams are only divided by peninsulas. They realize Petoskey is at the Mackinac Bridge ("North South East West"). Meanwhile, Liz revisits her marriage proposal to Petey on a boat under it ("Natural Beauty").

They drive up to find him. She offers the broken stone as a truce, but he tosses it into the water ("Rock Bottom"). This causes the bridge to fog up where Michilimackinac, the Great Turtle appears. They share that stones are like family as they come and go to leave a mark. And they ask the kids to stop the data centers around Michigan due to its harm on the environment and its noisiness ("Family's in the Fossils").

They return to the fair where Amanda is exhibiting data center models with the oligarchs. Jasper offers his restaurant for the Lake House. The Vandams return with decades of themed costume while Amanda shows how much "better" AI is. But the town rallies for this genuinely creative and weird family, against AI's goal of turning lakes into data centers. Amanda and the oligarchs refuse and steal the Ford, causing the town to chase after them. Liz, on her way to the Mackinac Bridge, tricks Amanda's GPS AI to go there. Her trauma causes her to crash off the side of the bridge. Everyone gets off, but the Ford falls into the strait below ("Leave No Stones Unturned").

This was the first time since the death of their loved ones that Liz and Amanda have crossed the bridge. In unison, the Vandams and Amanda cross, where Petey and Conor's ghost have their own reunion as lovers and brothers once more ("Water to My Soul").

Years later, Willy passes away. Lulu and Petoskey buy and fix up the lake house. On January 26, 2037, Lansing holds a parade to celebrate the 200th anniversary of MI's statehood with representatives from every city marching. The theme is Pure Michigan. Representing Elk Rapids, the Vandam family resembles the state's best ("Michigan").

CAST OF CHARACTERS

THE VANDAM FAMILY

PETOSKEY VANDAM is a 13-year-old farm boy from Skandia and the goofiest of Willy and Milly's grandkids. Besides his mom Liz, his only connection to extended family happens on Harbor Days in Elk Rapids. He never met his late father. To honor Petey, he wears his heart-shaped Petoskey heirloom with an elk symbol.

LIZZIE VANDAM is Petoskey's mother and narrator in Skandia. After her husband Petey's suicide in 2008, she stops crossing the Mackinac Bridge to attend Harbor Days and all family gatherings. Liz is a proud farm girl Yooper. Michigan State.

PETEY VANDAM is Petoskey's father, Liz's husband, and Willy and Milly's only son of four. Every Harbor Days, he would be the first to get up to wake everyone up. During the recession, his blue-collar shipyard job fires and replaces him and Liz with migrants, leading to a fight with his little sister Shelby for marrying an Arab. He drives off the Mackinac Bridge to save their house with his life insurance. His ghost visits Petoskey whenever he crosses the bridge. Michigan State.

LULU ABUGHOSH is a 13-year-old city girl from Dearborn and the brightest of Willy and Milly's grandkids, yet she is trollface personified. She hopes to beat cousin Petoskey in their annual rare rocks collection. She is writing a musical titled Dearborn, about a family of deer navigating the anthropomorphic Great Lakes. She plays banjo and is Iggy Pop's biggest fan. Her name is Arabic meaning "pearl."

SHELBY ABUGHOSH is Petoskey's aunt, Petey's little sister, and Lulu's mother who lives in Dearborn. She is an automotive worker for Ford Motor Company. As the sister who broke the mold by falling in love with an Arab, she and Petey had a tumultuous relationship. She tries to respect Petoskey. Kettering University.

PERRY VANDAM is Petoskey's aunt and Petey's older sister in Lansing. Her campy mind loves science. Michigan Technological University and Eastern Mich dropout.

CHERRY JACOBOWITZ is Petoskey's aunt and Petey's oldest sister in Kalamazoo. She arranges the theme and costumes for the annual Harbor Days parade. She is married to a Grand Rapids Griffins hockey manager. Hope College.

JACOB JACOBOWITZ is Cherry's son who is a Broadway actor in New York. He is the 2022 Grand Marshal for the Harbor Days Grande Parade where he is dressed as Wednesday from The Addams Family. He recently performed on the national tour of this show. Western Michigan University.

Michigan

LIBERTY AND BAILEY are twin siblings and Petoskey, Lulu, and Jacob's little cousins removed from reality. They are from Hell... Michigan. Liberty is allergic to sand and Bailey is allergic to pine. They make poison ivy bouquets.

MILLY VANDAM is Petoskey's bold grandmother and inventor. She invented the auto-toilet. With Willy, she owns a house by Elk Lake in Elk Rapids. She and Willy stumble into the audience every so often. Central Michigan University.

WILLY VANDAM is Petoskey's chill grandfather and gardener. With Milly, he owns a lake house by Elk Lake in Elk Rapids. Grieving Milly's death in 2020, he leaves the garden unattended and accidentally signs away the deed. He and Milly stumble into the audience every so often. Northern Michigan University.

MICHIGANDERS

JASPER TRAN is Petey's resourceful childhood friend and Petoskey's godfather/godmother who runs the BANH Michigan Vietnamese restaurant and a golf course. As a teen, they once looked down on the Arab community when a Lebanese family bought out his family's previous struggling restaurant. After Petey's death with his last memory being his prejudice towards Arabs for "stealing American jobs," they vow to help migrants no matter what. Ferris State.

AMANDA WAYLAND is the CEO of Turkey Ventures from Muskegon with the goal of turning every lake city into a data center. Following her brother Conor's suicide off the Mackinac Bridge, she loses her creative spirit and takes over her brother's business to create Afterlife.AI to bring late loved ones back as avatars. She was an art school rival of Cherry Vandam, before getting expelled. Hope College dropout. University of Michigan.

CONOR WAYLAND is Amanda's deceased brother who paved the way for AI. University of Michigan.

DETECTIVE is an investigator along the Mackinac Bridge.

THE GHOST OF HENRY FORD returns from Hell.

COPS, OLIGARCHS, RESIDENTS, anyone who speaks in "ope."

THE KEEPERS OF FAITH, FIRE, TRADE are the original people of the land.

MICHILIMACKINAC, the Mackinac spirit resembling the Great Turtle or a giant elk.
