Petey: Go Green!

(Audience members may respond: "Go White!")

Liz: ...and I still have no clue what Harbor Days is even about.

Cherry: It's about the parade, dear.

Perry: Nah, it's about the carnival!

Shelby: Actually, it's about the fireworks, yo!

Willy-Milly: It's about the Lake House.

Willy: My genius Milly-

Milly: Aw...

Willy: My genius, Milly. She invented the auto-toilet then flushed her money to buy this Lake House.

Milly: That ain't how you use the expression, sweetie. Well, my creative Willy tends to our garden.

Willy: Did you put a turtle in the koi pond? That turtle ate all of our koi fish!

Cherry: It's probably my son, Jacob. Little teenage rascal...

Liz: She's Petey's oldest sister, Cherry Jacobowitz. Her family's in Kalamazoo. She's a costume designer and her hubby played hockey with the Grand Rapids Griffins.

Cherry: The only pucks I give is winning the Most Creative Award at the annual Grande Parade.

Liz: Ever since they were little, Cherry would make the family wear elaborate costumes.

Cherry: 2008 is Red Wings's year.

Shelby: What does that make me?

Liz: Shelby, Petey's youngest sister. How's Ford in Dearborn holding up?

Shelby: Assembly line's fine, thanks to my husband. He got his Kurdish friends jobs. Minimum wage, but what more could one ask for in recession times?

Petey: Thanks America, letting illegals steal our jobs-

This musical score is for a song titled "The Michiganders give Milly the Most Creative Award plaque." It is page 15 of the score, starting at measure 120. The score is written for a large ensemble, including vocalists, a drum set, piano, guitar, violin, and cello. The key signature has two flats (B-flat and E-flat), and the time signature is 4/4. The vocal parts (Lizzie, Petey, Cherry Perry Shelby, Granny Milly, Grampy Willy, Jasper, and Michiganders) all sing the same lyrics: "love - ly", "wel - com - ing...", and "fam i - - ly!". The instrumental parts include a drum set with a triplet and chimes, a piano with chords (F(add4), E-flat, B-flat, E-flat), a guitar, a violin, and a cello. The score is written in a standard musical notation style with a grand staff for the piano and a single staff for each other instrument.

Shelby: Thanks for everything, Jasper.Lulu: I really did not need your help.Petoskey: You needed all the help you can get, Lulu.Jasper: And you needed manpower.Lulu: Ha! He called you a sissy, Petoskey!Petey: How could we ever repay you?Jasper: Your sweetness is good 'nough for me.

(Jasper nabs a handful of candy from Lulu and Petoskey's container.)

Lulu & Petoskey: That's my candy.

(Lulu and Petoskey fight over the container.)

Lulu & Petoskey: Mine! My sweets! Sugar! Mine!

(Jasper takes the box away.)

Jasper: In the jurisdiction vested by the council of fathers and godfathers, everything is mine.Lulu & Petoskey: What jurisdiction?

As they approach Mackinac Island, Liz's family and Petey's family run out with proposal posters. One reads: "Will you marry me, Petey?" The other reads: "Will you marry me, Lizzie?" Liz and Petey get on their knees simultaneously and pull out their rings. Flustered, they laugh. They set up the wedding ceremony on Mackinac Island.
